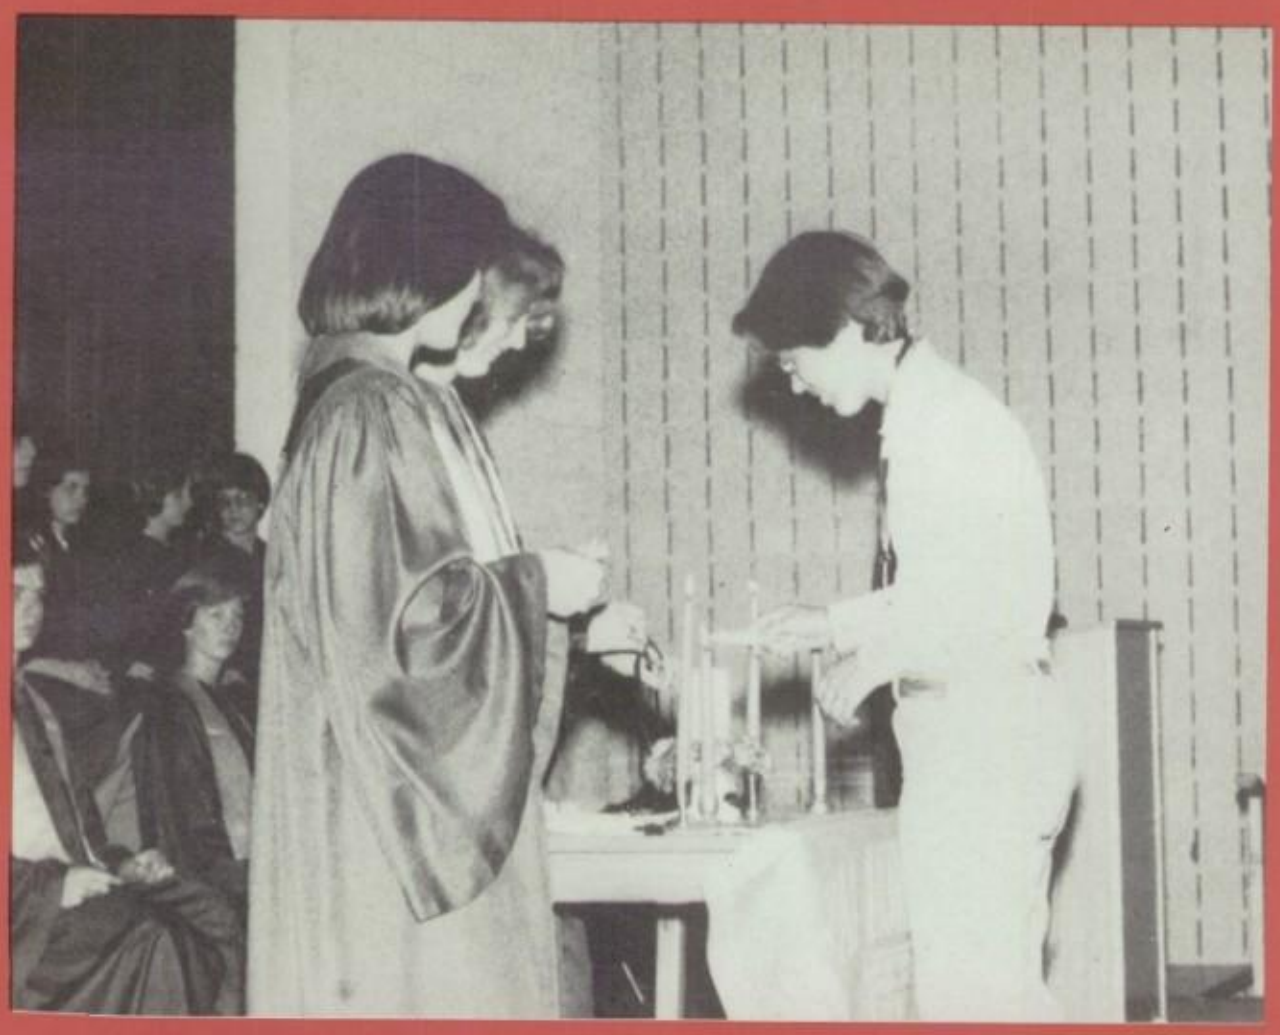
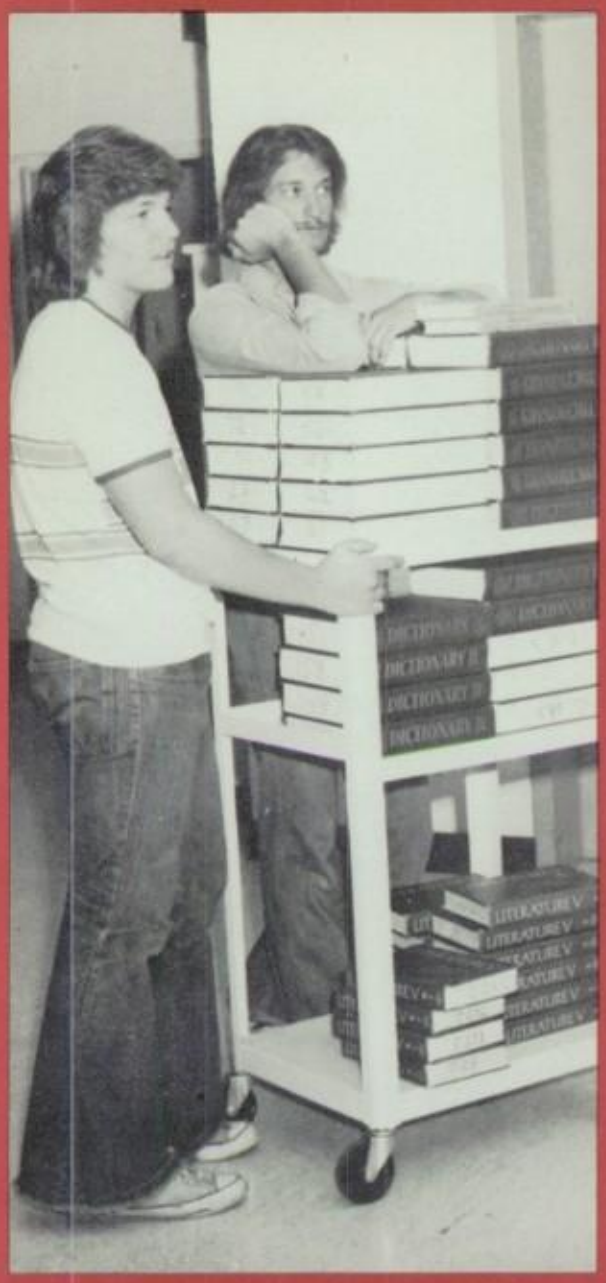
"Live each day to the fullest! Get the most of life, each hour, each day, and each age of it."

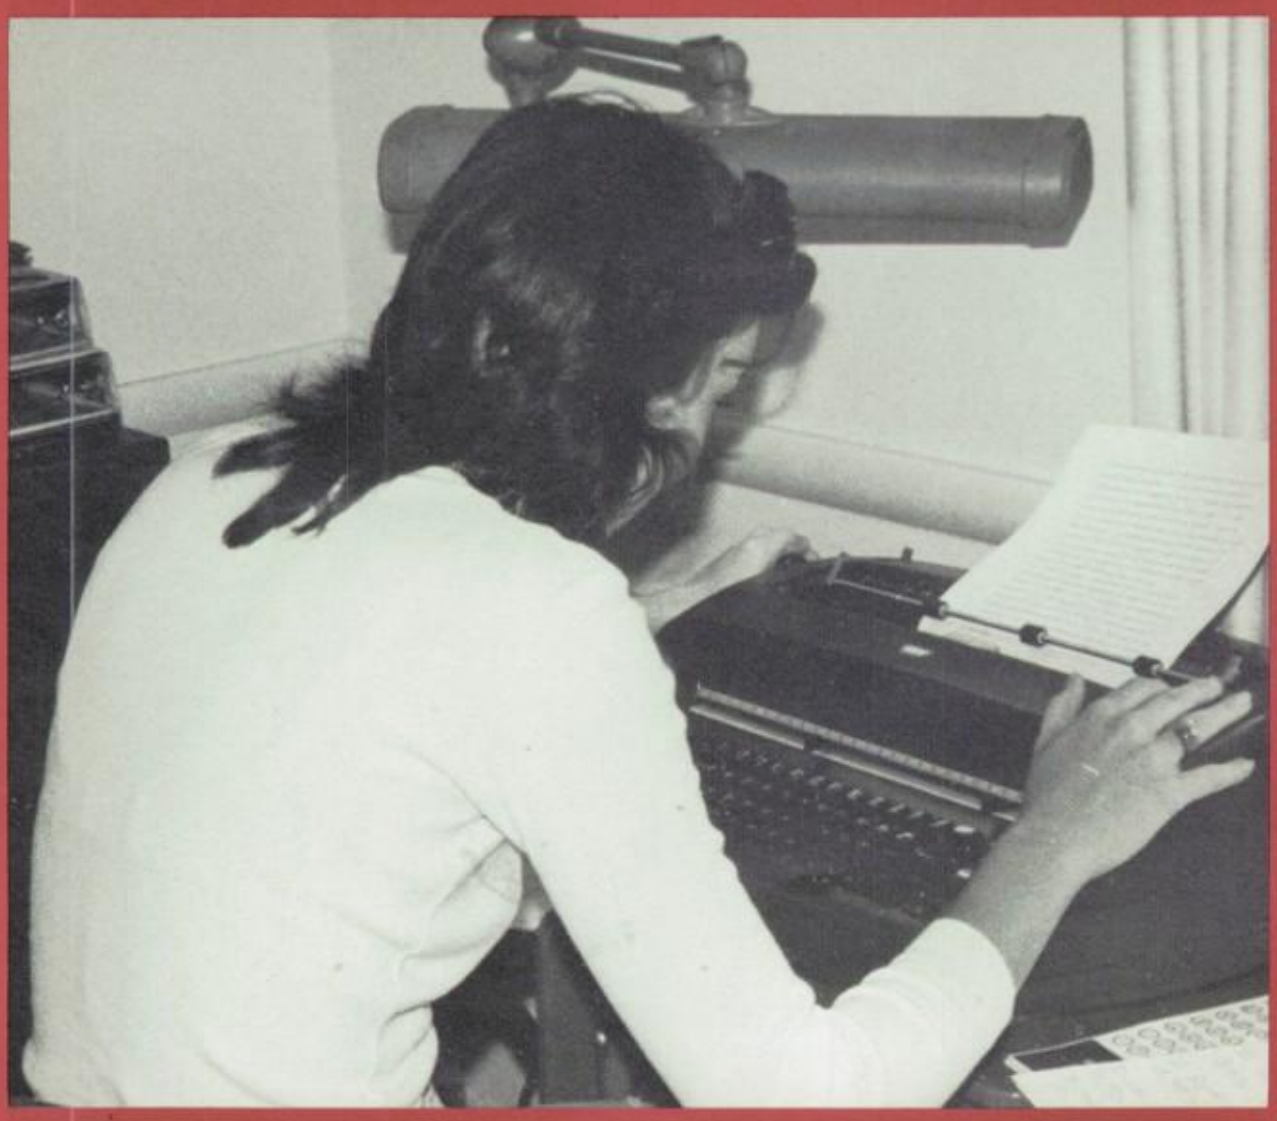
"Then you can look forward with confidence and back without regrets. Be yourself, but be your best self."



''Dare to be different and to follow your own goals. Above all don't be afraid to be happy.
Enjoy what is Beautiful! Love with all your heart and soul.''

"Believe that those you love, love you. Forget what you have done for friends and remember what they have done for you. Disregard what the world owes you and concentrate on what you owe the world."





"When you are faced with a decision make the decision as wisely as possible, then forget it.
The moment of absolute certainty never arrives."

"Above all remember God helps those who help themselves. Act as if everything depends on you and pray as if everything depends upon God."

Baccalaureate

Sunday afternoon May 22, 1977, at two-thirty the graduating class of 1977 assembled at Raleigh Baptist Church for the beginning of the formal ceremonies which would make them alumni of Craigmont High School. The baccalaureate address was delivered by Rev. B. L. Gaddie, the father of a graduating senior.

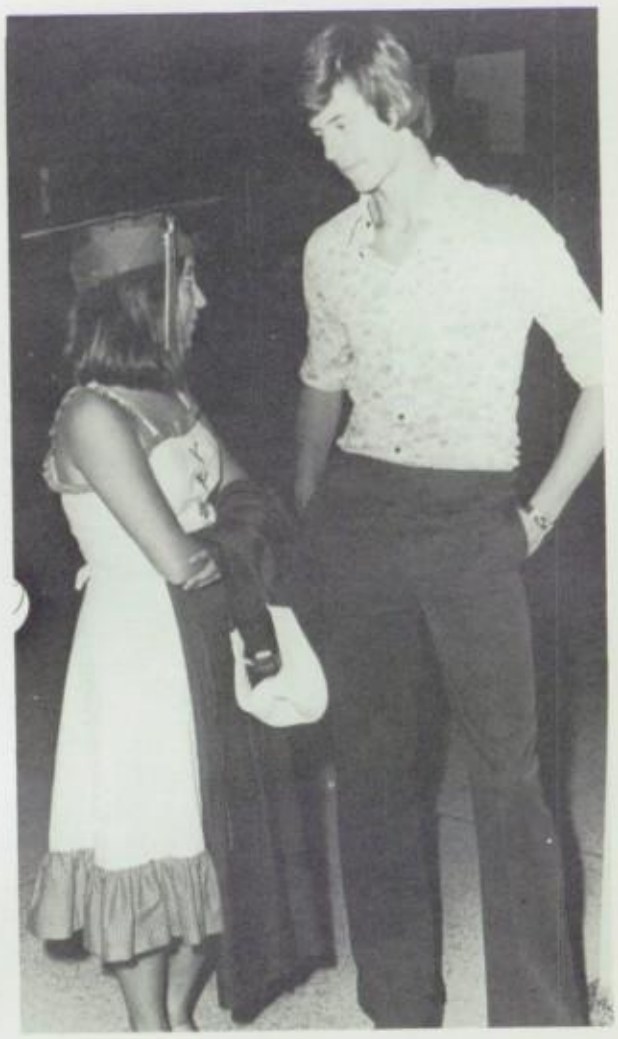
Graduation

June 2, 1977
Dixon — Myers Hall

As graduation neared, the excitement of a bright future and the memories of yesterday brought smiles and tears to the Seniors' faces.



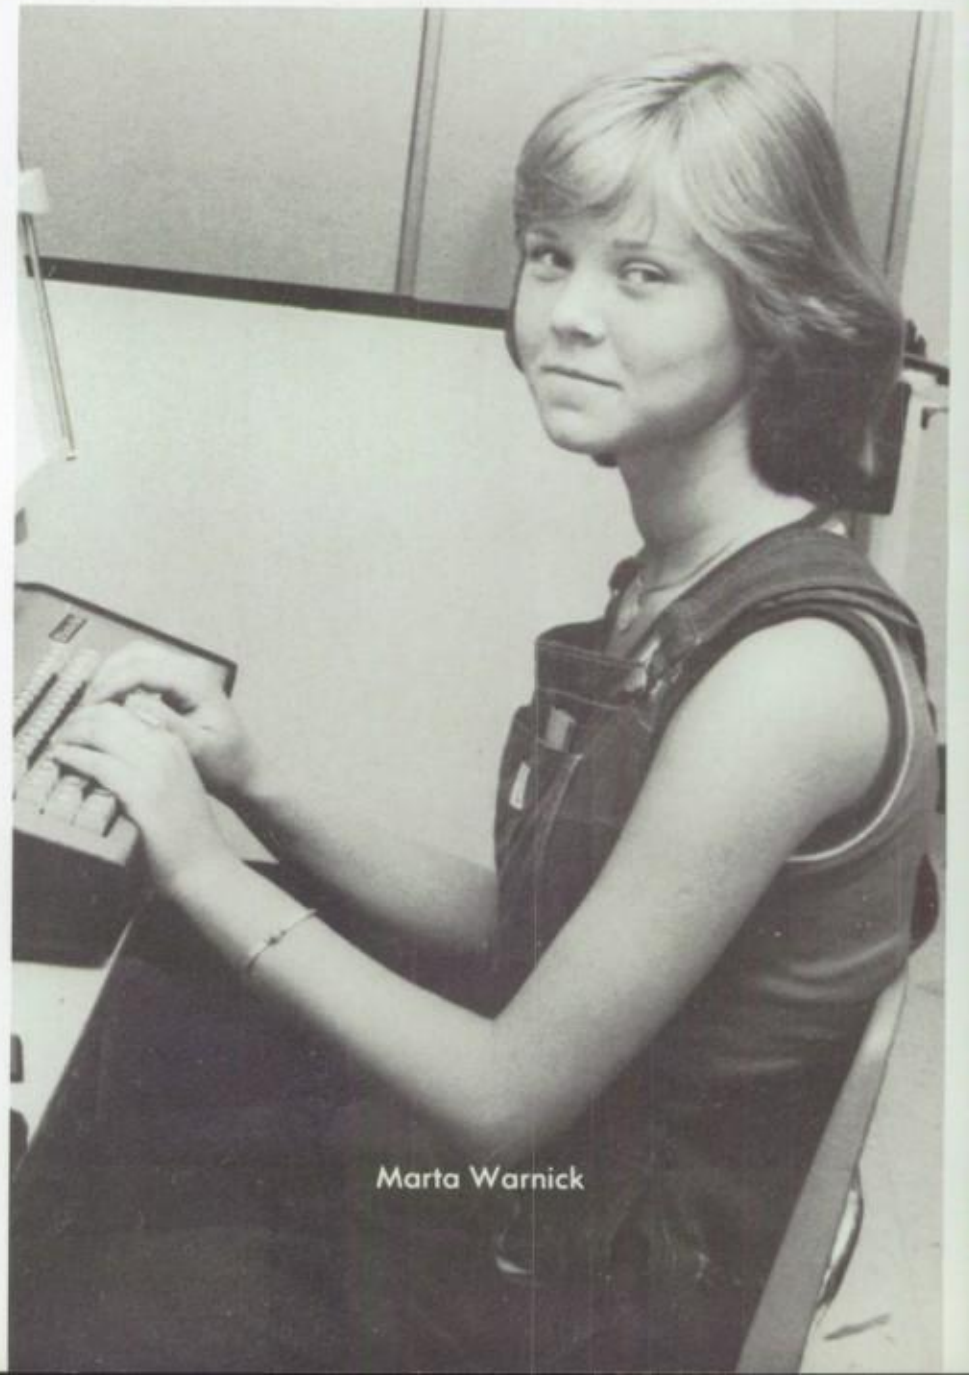
Senior Boat Ride

As a final gathering as a class, the Seniors of 1977 had a dance and boat ride on the Memphis Queen. D.J. Ron Olson provided the musical entertainment as the seniors danced up the Mississippi and back again. It was a fun-filled night with sight-seeing and dancing for everybody. The Seniors had a fantastic time and will surely remember the night for a long time.

DISTINCTIONS

Literary

As Editors of school publications, Karen Hoffman, Cindy Casey, and Marta Warnick put in many hours overtime in order to make them successful. Karen and Cindy edited the LEGEND; Marta edited the CALUMET. Ellen Vizzi's position as Business Manager made her responsible for the record-keeping of the LEGEND accounts.



Special Honors

Who's Who is a select group of students who, in the eyes of the Craigmont faculty, have shown qualities of leadership, scholarship, and citizenship. Many students have maintained the minimum 2.5 grade point average and satisfactory conduct prerequisites but have not been leaders. For that reason, they were not among those who have attained a place in the 1977 Who's Who.

Although the faculty voted on these students, they were also selected by the student body of Craigmont, because classmates give these students positions of leadership. Therefore, the student body played an important part in the selection of the nineteen members of this year's Who's Who.

Football

In the fall, man's fancy turned to football and thoughts of the autumn sports activity filled the air. This game of strength and discipline required a special type of individual — the person must enjoy the contact.

This year, because of school transfers, we lacked the experience necessary for an outstanding record. However, the season's many advantages outweighed the disadvantages. Many fine young players were given the opportunity to develop their skills under tense game conditions and all the team was given overwhelming encouragement from the fans.

Basketball

Desire — Hustle — Determination, have been the key words to describe the 1976-77 Basketball Chiefs. But another ingredient which set this team apart from the other's is fun. The Chiefs had fun and enjoyed playing the game, and in doing so have had their most successful season. The young and the new seemed to band around the strong senior leadership to establish Craigmont as a strong competitor against any team and respected by all.

Baseball

The key to baseball at Craigmont is Pride. Whether it be the long hours of practice toward perfection, the actual contests, or the endless task of keeping the diamond in the best possible shape, it all is a facet in the overall plan of life, wherein each young man that wears our colors will be able to look back with pleasant memories to the days he represented Craigmont on the baseball diamond.

The orchestra under the direction of Mr. W. R. Petreman worked long hours practicing in preparation for the musical OLIVER, and performed during the graduation exercise at Dixon-Myers Hall.

Athletic Banquet

The Athletic Banquet, May 19, 1977, was the culmination of sports activities for all Craigmont Chiefs for 1976-77. Awards were presented by coaches for outstanding performance in each area of sports. Parents, friends, and fellow athletes were present at the Holly Hills Country Club for this event. Coach Roberson from Memphis State University was the guest speaker for the banquet.

Legend Staff

It's all over now — all the time and hard work that the staff has put into this yearbook. We now breathe a sigh of relief for all our worries and frustrations have ended. We would like to thank our sponsors Mrs. Galloway and Mrs. Lile for without their help we could never have made it. We hope the 1977 Legend will have as special a meaning to you and hold as many memories for you as it does for us.
